

Pets Policy

Emperador Vallarta Beachfront Hotel & Suites understand that your pets are part of your family. That's why we welcome our four-legged friends!

With pleasure we welcome our guests with pets and small dogs.

We have a $ 15.00 USD charge per night for each pet, paying directly at the hotel reception at your arrival. You will also require a deposit of $ 100.00 USD for any damage, which is refundable at your departure if the room is in order to make your check out.

Here are our policies for pets:

- Service Animals accompanying persons with disabilities, are always welcome.
- The weight of the pet must not exceed 20 pounds.(9 kg)
- The pet must be properly trained by the host.
- The pet must have all vaccines according to local regulations (bring your primer)
- The pet must be kept with a leash in the hotel common, unless it be in the guest room.
- Pets should never be left alone in the room.
- Pets are not allowed in areas of food and beverages. This exclusion does not apply to guide dogs.
- The guest will be responsible for cleaning the pet waste at the hotel and surrounding areas.
- Any inconvenience caused as barking, must be reduced to ensure the comfort of other guests.
- With pleasure the hotel can provide relevant information such as veterinarians, Pets and Wildlife shops, parks, nurseries, restaurants and more.

If any of the above policies are not respected by one of our guests, the hotel will provide (for the same price $ 15.00) a safe and friendly place to take care for your pet.
